

Minnie marks 100th in style

MINNIE Haynes celebrated her 100th birthday in style – by being taken out in a stretch limousine.

Minnie and two friends, from Cromwell House in Leicester's Saffron Lane, rode with Minnie's sons, Alan and Malcolm, to a party at Kilworth House Hotel.

At the hotel in North Kilworth, Minnie's grandchildren, great-grandchildren and other friends were waiting to celebrate her big day on Saturday.

During a visit to the hotel several years ago Minnie said she would like to celebrate her 100th birthday there.

Minnie's granddaughter, Vicki Pratt, who lives in Wigston, said: "It was a really lovely day. She knew about the party but she didn't know my dad and uncle would be turning up at her sheltered accommodation with a big stretched limo!"
